(L)earning Enterprise for Life is a one-day seminar on entrepreneurship and education. It marks the end of the (L)earning project: a project on international good practices on entrepreneurship and education. Join students, teachers and policy makers on this seminar dedicated to the spirit of entrepreneurship.

The student track is geared towards inspiring and supporting students who are entrepreneurial. The teacher track gives hands on information for developing entrepreneurship activities. Furthermore, participating institutes share their experiences with bringing entrepreneurship into their education.

Keynote speaker is Dr David Gibson from Queens University, UK.
