

The December 2013 Storm: Learning lessons across the North Sea

Deltas in Times of Climate Change II
Deltas in Practice session DP2.8

Jaap Flikweert
24 September 2014

Aims of the session

- One Storm, Four Countries, Four Stories:
 - Understanding the risk
 - Mitigation
 - Preparedness
 - Response
- Give context to experiences and lessons learned
- Collect recommendations for dealing with future events
- Identify opportunities for sharing knowledge

Structure

- One Storm, Four Countries, Four Stories (1 hour)
 - England: Craig Woolhouse Environment Agency
 - Germany: Jan-Moritz Müller Agency of Roads, Bridges and Water City of Hamburg
 - Belgium: Michaël de Beukelaer-Dossche Waterwegen & Zeekanaal NV Flanders
 - The Netherlands: Bart Vonk Rijkswaterstaat
- Break-out with audience involvement (30 minutes)
- Conclusions and next steps

3 24 September 2014

What do we expect from you?

1. Pay specific attention to the topic on your coloured A4:
 - Understanding the risk (Sources, Pathways, Receptors)
 - Mitigation and preparedness (Policies, Procedures, Structures)
 - Response (Forecasting, Warning, Incident management, Recovery)
2. For your topic, note down your observations during the presentations
3. After the presentations:
 - Find your topic group
 - Choose a reporter
 - Discuss & pick:
 - Top 3 Differences & Similarities
 - Top 3 Lessons learned & Good practice
 - Report back to Plenary

4 24 September 2014

